

The complexities of a group practice.

“McKesson has made a strong strategic commitment to the group practice environment. McKesson provides us the tools so we can deliver quality care.”

Brian W. Schatz
Chief Operating Officer
Medical Associates Clinic, Dubuque, Iowa

We know how it works.

Each day at a group practice, everything needs to work together. At McKesson, we understand the complexities you face — clinically and administratively. After all, we’ve been a leader in healthcare for more than 170 years. Our solutions take care of the details in your practice so you can focus on what you do best — delivering high-quality, safe patient care.

We’ll work collaboratively with you to provide the right tools at the right time to deliver a positive financial impact. From EMR, e-prescribing and practice management tools to medical supplies and specialty pharmaceuticals, every McKesson solution is backed by personalized service from an experienced team.

Isn’t it time you let someone else worry about the business so you can have more time for patients — and yourself?
