

Association of Health Information Outsourcing Services

operational Confidentiality volume formats locations
Regulations operations
Confidential technology

Home

About AHIOS

Legislative Initiatives

Thought Leadership

AHIOS News

Member Login

Dedicated to Making a Difference

The Association of Health Information Outsourcing Services (AHIOS) was created in 1996 to increase awareness of the value of health information management service providers and the importance and complexity of the services they provide.

Since our inception, we have worked tirelessly to establish standards of excellence for the release of information (ROI) process in particular, advocated for fair and equitable compensation for ROI services, and created educational and networking opportunities for our members.

We invite you to explore our site to learn what we're all about >>

AHIOS Institute ▼

Featured Article ▼

Member Login ▼

AHIOS Institute Certificate Program Promotes Excellence in the Release of Patient Information

Learn More

ROI Certification Programs: Why They Are Necessary

ADVANCE for Health Information Professionals, March 3, 2010

Please enter your username and password below to access the Members' Section

Forgot Password?